CONTENTS

PAGE

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS 2

FOREWORD 3

PROGRAM 7

NECROLOGY 327

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON AFFILIATION 330

BUSINESS PROCEEDINGS 335

TREASURER'S REPORT 340

CONSTITUTION 342

MEMBERS 347

ADDRESSES.

Child Labor and the Public Schools, Everett W. Lord, A. M. 13

Religion and Education, John M. Thomas, D. D. 23

Direct Relation of Industrial Education to National Prosperity, George Emory Fellows 36

What Has Been Done and Is Being Done in New England, Willis O. Smith 48

The Need of Industrial Education and Its Methods—from a Business Man's Point of View, Magnus W. Alexander 67

The Need of Industrial Education and Its Methods—from an Educationalist's Point of View, Charles F. Warner 79

Report of Committee on Internationalism 99

The Movement for Higher Salaries, Some Moral Considerations, Frank H. Beede 108

State Pension Systems, Hon. Walter E. Ranger 115

The Teacher's Compensations, William T. Foster 121

The Maintenance of an Efficient Teaching Force, Frank E. Parlin 129

The Age Problem in the Grades, Frank H. Beede 151

Problems of the Country School and Their Solution, B. E. Merriam 157

The Ideal and the Practical in School Administration, Stanley H. Holmes 166

To What Extent Should the Normal Schools Prepare the Teachers to give Instruction in Agriculture, Home Economics and Manual Training, Arthur C. Borden 182

What Can the Normal School Do for Teachers in Active Service, Charles H. Morrill 188

The Field of History in the High School, Walter H. Cushing 195

The English Teacher's Opportunity, M. Catherine Mahy..207

The Average Elementary School and How It May Be Improved, Bertha M. McConkey 230

Some Fundamental Characteristics of the Efficient Teacher, Frank C. Johnson 236

Medical Inspection of Schools in Providence, Dr. Charles V. Chapin 250

The Training of Children in Civic Ideals, Mary McSkimmon 264

Consolidation of Rural Schools and Transportation, M. D. Chittenden 282

Supervision of Rural Schools, E. M. Roscoe 295

The Problem of Grading and Classification in Rural Schools, E. S. Watson 302

The Reward of the Teacher, Flavel S. Luther 315